UR Timetable Under SB 1160 Raising Questions

This article originally appeared on WorkCompCentral, and is reprinted here with permission.

On Sept. 30, Gov. Jerry Brown signed into law SB 1160, an initiative that will not only significantly change utilization review regulations in the Golden State, but could also potentially influence UR legislation across the country. Days before the signing, WorkCompCentral reported on the impact SB 1160 will have on UR organizations. Now that SB 1160 is law, we're sharing this story to provide you with a better understanding of how it may affect your services.
